BIO

Samantha Boyd is a Partner with Vandeveer Garzia. She has devoted her career to specializing in the areas of first party No-Fault, third-party auto negligence, premises liability, and general negligence litigation. She represents various insurance carriers throughout the State of Michigan and strives to achieve the best results for her clients. Samantha also is a member of the Michigan Defense Trial Counsel and State Bar of Michigan – Insurance and Litigation sections.

Samantha developed a passion for litigation while in law school. She was an Executive Director for the Moot Court Board of Advocates as well as a Title Editor for UDM's Law Review. During her time with the Board of Advocates, Samantha represented her school at the New York City Bar Association's National Moot Court Competition in Columbus, Ohio. Samantha received awards and honors during law school, became a member of the National Order of Barristers, and received a Book Award for the highest grade in torts.
