BIO

Madisyn T. Morin joined Vandeveer Garzia, P.C., in 2021 after graduation from The University of Toledo College of Law and admittance into the Michigan Bar. Her practice predominantly focuses in defense litigation including first-party Personal Injury Protection and third-party automobile negligence, premises liability, and other general civil litigation matters throughout Michigan’s trial courts. While attending law school, Madisyn worked as a Judicial Extern for the Kalamazoo County 9th Circuit Court—Trial Division and was the Vice President of the Intellectual Property Legal Society. Now, she is active with the State Bar’s Young Lawyers Section and Michigan Defense Trial Counsel. As a native of Monroe County, Madisyn enjoys spending time at Sterling State Park, attending performances at the Stranahan Theater, and supporting local coffee shops one espresso at a time.
