BIO

Rebecca I. Fadler is an Associate Attorney with Vandeveer Garzia. She focuses her practice on personal injury, catastrophic first-party automobile claims, third-party automobile claims, and general negligence matters. Before joining Vandeveer, Rebecca clerked in labor and employment law at a litigation and corporate law firm. While in law school, Rebecca was a member of the Indiana Journal of Global Legal Studies where she earned the Outstanding Notes Editor Award. She also served as a faculty research assistant, worked in-house on high stakes litigation matters, and was a fellow in her law school's admissions office. Rebecca was awarded the Indiana University Maurer School of Law Pro Bono Award for Service and the Michigan State University Tower Guard Outstanding Service Award. Prior to going to law school, Rebecca gained a passion for zealous advocacy while volunteering with people with disabilities.
