BIO

Kate P. Iraci is a Partner at Vandevere Garzia who practices first and third-party automobile negligence, insurance coverage and indemnity law, and business and commercial law and litigation. Before joining the firm, Kate represented insurance companies of all sizes as well as other businesses and individual clients in the defense of automobile negligence and commercial liability litigation. Among her professional accomplishments she has had several dozen bench trials and multiple jury trials while practicing in Georgia.

In her free time, Kate volunteers as a judge for mock trial at both high school and collegiate levels in both Georgia and Michigan.
