BIO

Denise Medina is a Partner at Vandever Garzia. Her practice is focused in the areas of Auto PIP, Premises Liability, Insurance Coverage and Indemnity Law, Business and Commercial Law and Litigation, and Professional & Healthcare Liability. Denise is originally from southern California. She attended Loyola Marymount University, and upon graduating with her Bachelor of Arts in 2013, she moved to Detroit. Denise went on to attend Wayne State University Law School. During her time at WSU Law, she participated in a legal aid clinic that assisted cancer patients with their legal needs. Moreover, she interned for a legal aid that represented tenants living in the City of Detroit. Denise graduated from Wayne State University Law School in 2018. After graduating from law school, Denise worked for a boutique law firm specializing in real estate litigation and transactions. Prior to joining Vandeveer Garzia, Denise also gained experience in probate, estate planning, landlord tenant, and small business law.
