BIO

Brianna Risner is an associate attorney at Vandeveer Garzia. Her practice focuses on auto/PIP, workers' compensation, and government and mass transit liability. She attended Saint Mary's College in Notre Dame, Indiana for her undergraduate degree. She then attended WMU Cooley Law School where she received a full tuition scholarship. During law school, she earned several book awards, was a board member of Law Review, and worked as a paralegal at a local personal injury firm. Before joining Vandeveer Garzia in 2025, she practiced personal injury law at a firm in Lansing and represented individuals in first party no-fault and third-party auto negligence cases.
