BIO

REEMA SAMMAN is a Partner with Vandeveer Garzia, P.C., where she focuses on complex insurance defense matters, including auto negligence and personal injury matters. She has a diverse background that includes plaintiff-sided auto litigation in both PIP and Negligence cases, premises liability, wrongful death and alternative dispute resolution, giving her valued perspective in her defense practice. Among her professional accomplishments are several bench and jury trials to verdict. As a California native she is fluent in both Arabic and Spanish.
